TO BE POPULISTS.
Thirty-five Labor Organizations in New York, Decide to Act With the People's Party.
MAKE A PLATFORM
Which Differs Little From That of Populists.

New York, Sept. 14.—Delegates of thirty-five labor organizations met last night in Clarendon hall and adopted a platform on which labor proposes to enter the political campaign at the coming election. John B. Lennon, secretary of the Journeymen Tailors' union and the treasurer of the American Federation of Labor, was chosen permanent chairman of the convention, and John J. Kinnerly, a prominent Populist, permanent secretary. The platform, which was adopted unanimously, embodies the following declarations:

Resolved: That we urge the election of legislators favorable to the following demands: That the government own and control all the means of transportation and communication, mines and all the other monopolies; the ownership by municipalities of all street railways, gas and electric light plants and water works necessary to the public service, and such other business that may become a proper legal local function, and should be controlled and managed by and for the whole people concerned through their proper government, local, state or national, as it may be.

We demand a national currency, safe, sound and flexible, issued by the general government only, a full legal tender for all debts, public and private, and that without the use of banking corporations.

We demand that all laws shall originate with the people, and be voted on and approved by them before being finally passed upon by congress and legislatures.

We demand the enactment of an efficient eight hour law, and a penalty attached for violation of said law by either employer or employee, and that it shall be obligatory upon the part of district or state attorneys to prosecute at the expense of the state and upon information received by one or more responsible parties, all parties violating said law.

We demand that convict labor shall not compete with free labor; that the factory acts should protect women and children; and that children under 14 years of age shall be prohibited from working in any branch of industry for wages or hire; that the liability of employers to employees shall be the same as that of employers to non-employees; that all conspiracy laws designed to oppress labor shall be abolished.

We demand the abolition of the contract system on all city, state and national public works, and that none but citizens shall be employed. We imperatively demand that sufficient accommodation for school children shall be provided as one of the most essential means of national progress.

The platform will be sent to every labor organization in the city.

It is decided to accept the offer of the People's party for the use of its political machinery, and the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved: That every delegate here be instructed to recommend to his organization that its members be requested to join the People's party organizations in the assembly districts upon condition that our platform, as adopted here, be concurred in by that party.

AGAINST COLORED MEN.
A Judge Decides That Business Houses
May Exclude Them.

Bloomington, Ill., Sept. 14.—Judge Tipton of the circuit court here has rendered a decision respecting the legal rights of men engaged in business.

In July last two colored men applied to H. H. Green, who keeps a soda fountain in his drug store, for soda water and were refused on account of their color.
Each sued Green for $500 damages under the statute of civil and legal rights.
Judge Tipton has decided that they had no cause of action; that the law prohibiting keepers of hotels, restaurants, eating houses, barber shops, public conveyances, theaters and public accommodations and amusement from discrimination between people on account of color did not apply to a drug store or one keeping a soda fountain; and that it did not apply to merchants dealing in dry goods, groceries, etc., nor to professional men, and that they might choose the person with whom they wished to do business.

The case will be appealed to the supreme court.

NO BLOWN OUT GAS.
A Countryman Brings a Candle With Him to Avoid Trouble.

BAITMORE, Sept. 14.—A countryman wearing a dusty southerner, yellowing clothes and heavy boots stepped ashore from the steamer R. E. Ford and registered at the Fountain hotel, Pratt and Culvert streets, last night. He had heard about the results of blowing out the gas and then going to bed.

To make sure of no casualty he brought with him a candle from his home in Kent county. While moving around his room in the hotel with the lighted candle in his hand, he ran into the mosquito netting. It blazed to the ceiling and set the bed and bedding on fire. There were cries of fire, a rush for water and the flames were extinguished with great difficulty.

ing day in the week more than twice as many Topeka people as can be reached through any other paper. This is a fact.

Twenty-five new men were put on at the Santa Fe shops today. It is understood that they are all or nearly all old employees, and that many of them are members of the A. R. U., but nothing was said about that.

THE DOGS ALL RELEASED.
Somebody Freed All the Dogs From the City Pound.

There is great rejoicing among all the dogs of Topeka today; for some person went to the city pound last night and released every dog that was confined there.

The pound which is located back of a livery stable on Jackson street, between Fifth and Sixth streets, contained upwards of fifty dogs of high and low degree. There were some good dogs there but most of them were "just dogs" of the yellow cur variety.

The release of the dogs is assigned to the bitter feeling that exists between the Populist police department and the other city officers. Dog Catcher Miller is a Republican, but the police have access to the pound. This is the explanation for the release, accepted by Miller and the other Republican. The pound has been locked by a padlock, and this had the war with the police on the scavenger question goes merrily on. The police make no concealment of the fact that they do not choose to give their sanitary notices to the only legal scavenger appointed by Mayor Harrison. Scavenger Lowe "cromated" two more dogs yesterday in spite of the ordinances against him in a warrant was sued yesterday by the health board for Lowe's arrest, but Lowe's friends, the police, have thus far refused or neglected to serve it, although it could be served at any time. Sergeant Steele, who has been out on parole, has not been able to catch Lowe. City Physician Hilborn stirred Steele up today, however, and he promised to have Lowe in police court tomorrow morning.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT.
Three Liquor Cases and One of Illegal Practice of Medicine.

Lucinda Thompson a colored woman past middle age, is on trial in the district court today on the charge of practicing medicine without a physician's license. She lives near the starch factory and her operations were confined largely to the people in that vicinity. Dr.
C. S. McClintock the county health officer, and Secretary Dykes of the state board of health, are responsible for the prosecution.

The evidence showed that an old colored man paid her 95 cents to doctor his eyes and ears, and to give him other medicine. The defense will attempt to prove that Mrs. Thompson was merely a professional nurse and used only such medicines as came properly within her services. Whatever other medicines she may have given were patent medicines with directions on the bottle, such as can be bought at any drug store.

Mrs. Fannie Clements, charged with selling liquor in Boogie's flats on East Craw street, plead guilty to one count today, but has not been sentenced yet.

Frank Shaw, charged with running a club, plead guilty to two counts of selling liquor and was fined $200, and sentenced to sixty days in jail.

The jury in the case of "Uncle John" Noddo of Kossville, who was charged with selling liquor, returned a verdict last night of guilty in one count. There were two counts charged. The sentence was the customary $100 and thirty days.

MEANS REBELLION.
The Uprising in India May Turn Against the British.

BOMBAY, Sept. 14.—The excitement which commenced on Wednesday at midnight at Poonah city and which led to a riotous fight between Mohammedans and Hindoos continues.

All business is suspended and the streets are patrolled by a squadron of hussars. The town is in a state of anarchy. It is doing his utmost to reconcile the warring parties.

To make matters worse a pamphlet in leaflets has been issued by fourteen Brahmins urging the Hindoos to arm and inaugurate a religious outbreak as the first step toward the overthrow of alien power.

An Unfinished Novel.
CHAPTER I.
Myrtle Templemore was not a beautiful girl, but she was very good looking and had money.

That was why she hesitated when Ezra St. Clair offered his hand to her in marriage.

Ezra worked in a restaurant. She did not see that Ezra was putting up very much alongside of her beauty and hard dollars.

"I cannot be, Ezra," said she, nervously tearing to pieces a leaf which she had plucked from a bouquet in her lap.

"Very well," said he. "This evening I take an electric car for Evanston, perhaps never to return."

She heard the gate click as he passed out.

"Will he ever cross my life again?" she pondered.

CHAPTER II.
It was the height of the season at Win-dors Park beach. Large numbers of people were sitting in the sand. A man with a guitar and mouth organ had just taken up a collection.

"That face! That face!" gasped Myrtle Templemore, clutching by the arm her gentleman friend, Claude Stebbins, who was junior proprietor of one of the largest feet barns on the West Side.

"What's hitting you?" asked Claude tenderly.

"It's all over now," said she, laughing nervously.

But all the way home on the street car she was despondent.

CHAPTER III.
"It is a proposal of marriage from Claude," said Myrtle to the postman banded her a letter and she saw on the envelope "return in 10 days to Bowles & Stebbins, feed and boarding stables, Sagamont and Morgan streets."

And as she opened the letter and saw the neat picture of a double seated wagon at the top of the page her suspicions were confirmed. Then she thought of Ezra St.
Clair.

CHAPTER IV.
"Shall I, or shall I?" moaned Myrtle, crushing the letter in her hand and looking out of her bedroom window at the stars twinkling above.

It was late at night.
She should have been in bed.

And the morning light, gray and cold, broke in at the window and found her there, still thinking.

CY CORNING'S TICKET.

Populists Charge That It Is Gotten Up by Cy Leland's Committee.

The Populist state central committee seems not to be worried about the independent Populist ticket which has been brought out headed by Cyrus Corning as a candidate for governor, but at the office of the secretary of state this morning the officials were very particular to give out a letter from H. A. White, a Butler county man, who said the use of his name as a candidate for attorney general on the new ticket was unauthorized and he protested against the secretary of state entering his name on the ticket.

The full ticket for which it is said enough petitioners have been found to secure a place on the official ballot at this fall's election, is as follows:

For Associate Justice—W. H. Bennington, Topeka.

For Governor—Cyrus Corning, Topeka.

For Lieutenant Governor—M. A. Pratt, Wichita.

For Secretary of State—Fred Anthony, Pittsburg.

For Attorney General—H. A. White, Augusta.

For State Treasurer—S. T. Cherry, Parsons.

For Superintendent of Instruction—Mrs. Etta Semple, Ottawa.

Secretary R. H. Semple, of the Populist state central committee, whose sister-in-law is the candidate for state superintendent on the new ticket, says he knows that the new ticket was gotten up according to instructions from the Republican state central committee, and that the members of the new party are riding over the state on passes furnished by the Republican committee and their expenses are being paid by Chairman Leland's committee.

Secretary Semple today secured possession of the names of the state central committee of the new party and found his brother Matt Semple of Ottawa, is the committeeman from the Second district.

The names of the committeemen of the new party are: First district, Edgar Simpson of Leavenworth; Second, Matt Semple, Ottawa; Third, O. O. Bonder-eant, Pittsburg; Fourth, J. Y. Robbins, Topeka; Fifth, Henry Clayton, Bennington; Sixth, Hugh Leigh, Ellsworth; Seventh, C. H. Black, Leoti; at large, J. W.
Yarroll, Leavenworth.

ADY'S CASE WON.
Against the Missouri Pacific for Discrimination in Freight Rates.

WICHITA, Kan., Sept. 14.—Judge John Williams of the United States circuit court this morning rendered an important decision in the case of United States vs. Missouri Pacific railway company, in which he overruled the demurrer of the defendant company to the jurisdiction of the court, and as to the power of a United States district attorney to originate cases in court without first having it passed upon by the interstate commerce commission. The charge is discrimination in freight rates against Wichita in favor of other cities, and the case was commenced by United States Attorney Ady, and has now been pressed to a successful issue by United States Attorney Ferry.

MRS. GOUGAR'S LIBEL SUIT.
Campaign Stories Abused as a Basis for Libel Suits.

BOSTON, Sept. 14.—Another great crowd was present today at the fourth days proceedings of the Gougar-Morse libel suit. Hon. Joseph H. Manley of Maine, was an interested spectator. Mr.
Morse greeted the Republican chairman warmly and escorted him to a seat near Mr. Gougar.

After an hour spent in arguing the points of law, Ex-Governor Robinson proceeded to address the jury on behalf of the defendants. He said that if everybody noticed the things said during all political campaigns there would be nothing but libel suits against half of the papers in the country.

He referred to the Maine campaign and to the unpleasant things said about the president of the United States, none of which, he said, were made grounds for libel suits.

PENNOYER'S IDEA.

Information Served on the Banks of Oregon Relating to Dead Depositors.

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 14.—An information with interrogatories and an order of court, made by Judge Stearns, have been served on a number of banks in this city, by District Attorney Hume, appearing for the state of Oregon. The information reports to be issued by direction of Governor Pennoyer. It alleges that the banks for the past seven years have received divers and sundry deposits, the depositors of which have died intestate in this state and such deposits are in the custody of the banks, that the deposits have escheated to the state of Oregon; that in order to recover said escheated property it is necessary to institute actions at law.
